Two Elderly Spinster Sisters Pass Away at Retirement With- in Sixteen Hours.

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 27.—Two elderly ladies, who had been in the hospital at the residence of the Collinses at their home, at "Retirement" in Fairfax County, west of this city, tonight passed away, leaving a double bereavement. In sixteen hours two of the sisters died, leaving only a brother, J. Samuel Collins, to mourn their loss.

The first sister to go was Miss Helen W. Collins, sixty-two years old, who expired at midnight Thursday last. Her sister, Miss Virginia Collins, seventy-six years old, lay ill in bed in the adjoining room and heard of her sister's demise. The shock proved too great for her, and she expired at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

North Washington street, was responsible for a fire alarm at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon. A little daughter of Rev. Mr. Morton, entering the room and finding it dark, lit a match for the purpose of locating a garment. The match came in contact with other clothing in the closet and in a moment the entire contents were in flames. The fire department subdued the fire. The little girl escaped injury. The loss is covered by insurance.
